

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1911.

Published every week-day afternoon.
Subscriptions: One year, $3.00; one month, 25 cents; single copy, 1 cent.

Entered at the post office at Barre as second-class matter.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending last Saturday was copies, the largest circulation of any daily paper in Vermont outside of Burlington.

5,700

We were all fooled on the weather today.

The Society of Ex-Mrs. Nat Goodwins is no longer exclusive.

At last, New York has a new United States senator, and, incidentally, it may be added that Tammany hall still rules the roost.

One of the sections in the Winoski village meeting warning for next week's meeting is: "To see if the village will vote to maintain a regular police force." In the light of recent developments, it is easy to see an affirmative answer to that question. Winoski is the nearest large place to the government military reservation, and that explains the particular necessity for police protection.

Announcement is made that Messrs. George and Morris F. Atkins have acquired entire control of the Montpelier Argus property, which is pleasing information to their many friends, both in and out of the newspaper profession. The Atkins family has long been feeding out the news through this medium, from "Randolph Radiations" to "Cabot Canto," and the Argus wouldn't be quite the same without an Atkins connected with it in some capacity. Congratulations to the Atkinses!

SEN. PAGE'S LETTER CANVASS.

Judging by the returns already received, United States Senator Page does not find his way clearer to a vote on the Canadian reciprocity question through the system of an open question to the public of Vermont. The replies which he has received from all over the state are such as to confuse one, inasmuch as one interest calls for a negative vote on reciprocity and another calls for an affirmative action by the senator. And even at that the single interests are not unanimous. Therefore, it will naturally resolve itself into a personal choice in the matter, keeping in mind the safeguarding of the interests which will be most affected by the proposed agreement. Doubtless, the majority of the letters which Senator Page has received have come from the anti-reciprocity advocates because the farming class is generally suspicious of reciprocal relations and because, too, Vermont is somewhat rock-ribbed in allegiance to the principle of protection.

HIGH SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

The Ludlow Tribune laments the tendency of school children to leave school at the end of the ninth grade, and rightly so. But hereabouts, the opposite tendency has latterly been gaining ground.

Evidence of this changed sentiment is shown in the increased attendance at the high schools, which cannot wholly be explained by the natural increase in population. Spaulding high school in Barre and Montpelier high school have been increasing rapidly in numbers during recent years, so rapidly, in fact, that the question of accommodation is somewhat difficult in each city; and we believe other schools have experienced a similar growth.

One great force in causing this awakened interest on the part of the boys and girls has been the broadening of the courses to cover more diversified demands, and, to a lesser degree, another force to sustain school attendance is the more general purpose of attending college. Of the two, the former is much the more important and far-reaching, and should be particularly encouraged. This can be done by adding to the courses of the high schools, just as soon as conditions will warrant, those practical features of school instruction which can be put to direct use in after-life. Manual training, domestic science and, in some schools, practical agriculture, are imperative demands of the present day, and as soon as such courses are established we shall see a great increase in the proportion of boys and girls who continue their common school education through the high schools, while at the same time they will be gaining very valuable information to be used in gaining a livelihood.

GROTON.

Mrs. C. B. Page has returned from the hospital at Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. J. T. Darling and Mrs. C. J. Bailey visited friends at Wells River Wednesday.

Mrs. Rose Crown and daughter, Miss Calista, of Woodsville, N. H., have been passing several days with relatives here.

Mrs. L. G. Welch, daughter, Miss Rita, and grandson, Mark Carpenter, visited Mrs. Charles Miller at South Ryegate Wednesday.

Mr. Duffy, a blacksmith on the Blue Mountain quarry, is moving his family from Northfield to the tenement of George Olney.

A daughter was born March 25 to Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Beeman at West Brookfield, Mass. Mrs. Beeman was formerly Miss Iva Jones of Groton.

Miss Martha Ralston, who has been at Cottage hospital, Woodsville, N. H., for some time, ill with typhoid fever, has recovered sufficiently to come to the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Williamson.

John Renfrew left Friday for Brattleboro, where he expects to form a partnership with his brother, Wilbert, who deals in grain. Mrs. Renfrew will join her husband as soon as the traveling will permit moving their household goods to the station.

News has been received here of the death of Mrs. J. A. Noyes, which occurred at Hardwick last week. Mrs. Noyes, whose maiden name was Emeline Whitteer, was born in Groton and lived in town many years. She was 78 years of age. Burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, St. Johnsbury.

PLAINFIELD.

John Perry is reported quite ill.

Mrs. C. F. Dudley of East Montpelier was in town Tuesday.

Clyde Perry of Barre was in town Thursday on business.

John Renfrew of Groton was in town Monday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whitteer spent part of this week in Montpelier.

APPENDICITIS

Cured Without Operation.

Here is Sworn Proof:

STATE OF MINNESOTA, ss.
COUNTY OF STEELE.
I, Richard Jahreis, of Owatonna, Minn., being first duly sworn, do say that I am the person named in and who subscribed the following statement and the same is true of my own knowledge, in every particular: "I had severe pains in my right side, just above the Appendix. I went to the doctor and he pronounced my case Appendicitis and advised an operation. Instead I went to Zamboni Bros., Drug Store and bought a bottle of (Adler-i-ka) Treatment. After taking it the result was indeed wonderful. The pains stopped and I felt like a new man. I heartily recommend (Adler-i-ka) Treatment to anyone troubled with Appendicitis, as I know it has cured me."
(Signed) RICHARD H. JAHREISS.
Subscribed and sworn to before me June 29, 1905.
J. NEWSALT, Notary Public, Steele County.

Appendicitis is becoming more and more, and everyone should know of this wonderfully successful treatment. A valuable book, showing many pictures of that curious and little known organ, the human Appendix, and telling how Appendicitis is caused, how it can be treated without operation, and how you can easily guard yourself against it, will be given FREE to anyone calling at our store.
